

JUDICIAL MARSHAL POLICY AND PROCEDURE MANUAL

Section: Arrests and Use of Force	Policy and Procedure No: 208-03
Arrest and Detention of Foreign Nationals
DATE ISSUED: 22 APR 03	DATE EFFECTIVE: 22 APR 03	REVISION No: New	PAGE: 1 of 25

1. Policy and Purpose

Judicial Marshals shall observe mutual obligations that pertain to foreign nationals arrested while in United States. This means prompt, courteous notification to the foreign national of the possibility of consular assistance, and prompt, courteous notification to the foreign national's nearest consular officials so that they can provide whatever consular services they deem appropriate.

2. Authority and Reference

- A. Vienna Compact on Consular Relations (VCCR);
- B. Connecticut General Statutes Sections 6-32(a) and 6-32(d);
- C. Judicial Marshal Policy and Procedure Sections 200-03 (Ethics and Conduct);
- D. Judicial Marshal Policy and Procedure Sections 213-01 (Reporting of Incidents);
- E. Consular Notification and Access Instruction Booklet, United States Department of State Publication 10518, 1998.
- F. Consular Notification and Access Reference Card, United States Department of State, February, 2002.

3. Procedures

A. General Principles.

- (1) In general, when a foreign national is detained or arrested by a judicial marshal they must be advised that they have the right to have their consular officials notified.
- (2) In some instances, notification is mandatory regardless of the foreign national's wishes.
- (3) Consular officials are entitled to access to their nationals in detention, and are entitled to provide consular assistance. Such officers have the right to visit their nationals, to converse and correspond with them, and to arrange for their legal representation. The rights of consular access and communication generally must be exercised subject to normal Judicial Marshal lockup regulations.

- (4) Detained foreign nationals are entitled to communicate with their consular officers. Any communication by a foreign national to his/her consular representative must be forwarded to the appropriate embassy/consulate without delay.
- (5) In the event that a foreign national dies in the custody of judicial marshal services, consular officials must be notified.

B. Responsibilities of the Judicial Marshal. Judicial Marshals assigned to lockups shall:

- (1) Determine the foreign national's country. In the absence of other information, assume this is the country indicated on the prisoner's arrest paperwork or travel documentation (i.e. passport). If arrest paperwork or other documentation does not indicate a nationality, it is appropriate to ask the prisoner if he/she is a foreign national and of which country.
- (2) Check the list of Mandatory Notification countries (Appendix A). If the prisoner is a foreign national from a country that is not on the mandatory notification list:
 - a. Read the prisoner Statement 1, which is listed in Appendix B.
 - b. If the prisoner asks that consular notification be given, complete the fax form shown in Appendix C. Then do the following:
 - i. Notify the nearest consular officials of the prisoner's country without delay by faxing the completed notification form to the embassy/consulate. Phone and fax numbers are listed in Appendix D.
 - ii. If no fax number or fax machine is available, call the embassy or consulate. Indicate this call on the fax form, recording the date, time and person to whom you spoke with at the embassy or consulate. If there is no answer, or a voice mail message was left, indicate such on the notification form.
 - iii. File the fax form, along with the fax transmission receipt with the cellblock lead or supervisor. The notification form is the written record that notification has been made.

- c. If the prisoner does not want his embassy/consulate notified, record the provision of notification and actions taken in the cellblock log.
- (3) If the prisoner is a foreign national from a country that is on the mandatory notification list:
- a. Read the prisoner Statement 2, which is listed in Appendix B.
 - b. Complete the fax form shown in Appendix C. Then do the following:
 - i. Notify the nearest consular officials of the prisoner's country without delay by faxing the completed notification form. Tell the prisoner that you are making this notification. Phone and fax numbers are listed in Appendix D.
 - ii. If no fax number or fax machine is available, call the embassy or consulate. Indicate this call on the fax form, recording the date, time and the name of the person at the embassy or consulate with whom you spoke. If there is no answer, or a voice mail message was left, indicate such on the notification form.
 - iii. File the fax form, along with the fax transmission receipt with the cellblock lead or supervisor. The notification form is the written record that notification has been made.
- C. Responsibilities of Lead and Supervising Judicial Marshals. Lead and Supervising Judicial Marshals assigned to lockup shall:
- (1) Ensure that the procedures of this section are understood and followed by the personnel under their command.
 - (2) Conduct roll call training for staff under their command as needed to ensure compliance with this policy and procedure.
 - (3) Ensure that all notification forms are correctly completed and filed in descending sequential order by date.
 - (4) Notify the appropriate embassy/consulate whenever a foreign national dies in the custody of Judicial Marshal Services.
 - (5) Process and respond to all contact with representatives from United States Department of State as appropriate. Report such contact through the chain of command as directed in Judicial Marshal Policy and Procedure 213-01, Reporting of Incidents.

- (6) Process and respond to all requests for prisoner access/contact made by consular officials. Record such requests, and actions taken, in the cellblock log.
- (7) Process and respond to all prisoner requests to contact their consular officials. Record such requests, and actions taken, in the cellblock log.
- (8) Ensure that an adequate supply of all forms and publications related to this policy and procedure is maintained.

D. Responsibilities of Deputy Chief and Chief Judicial Marshals. Deputy Chief and Chief Judicial Marshals shall:

- (1) Ensure that the procedures of this section are understood and followed by the personnel under their command.
 - (2) Periodically inspect the documentation and logs to ensure compliance with this policy and procedure.
 - (3) Process, respond and report to any unusual situation with regards this policy.
4. Exceptions. Any exception to the procedures in this policy and procedure shall require prior written approval from the Executive Director of Court Operations.

² Hong Kong reverted to Chinese sovereignty on July 1, 1997, and is now officially referred to as the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, or "SAR." Under paragraph 3(f)(2) of the March 25, 1997, U.S.-China Agreement on the Maintenance of the U.S. Consulate General in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, U.S. officials are required to notify Chinese officials of the arrest or detention of the bearers of Hong Kong passports in the same manner as is required for bearers of Chinese passports--i.e., immediately, and in any event within four days of the arrest or detention.

APPENDIX B

Statements to Arrested or Detained Foreign Nationals

Statement 1

When Consular Notification is at the Foreign National's Option

As a non-U.S. citizen who is being arrested or detained, you are entitled to have us notify your country's consular representatives here in the United States. A consular official from your country may be able to help you obtain legal counsel, and may contact your family and visit you in detention, among other things. If you want us to notify your country's consular officials, you can request this notification now, or at any time in the future. After your consular officials are notified, they may call or visit you. Do you want us to notify your country's consular officials?

Statement 2

When Consular Notification is Mandatory

Because of your nationality, we are required to notify your country's consular representatives here in the United States that you have been arrested or detained. After your consular officials are notified, they may call or visit you. You are not required to accept their assistance, but they may be able to help you obtain legal counsel and may contact your family and visit you in detention, among other things. We will be notifying your country's consular officials as soon as possible.
