ARBITRATOR'S AWARD

After having heard this matter on May 14, 1999, I decide as follows:

1. On December 11, 1995, Plaintiff William Andrews slipped and fell on some ice in a parking lot controlled by defendants.

2. The ice was left over from a snow fall several days before.

3. Defendants had plowed the parking lot, but had not sanded or put salt on the parking lot.

4. There was no evidence Defendants had any notice of the icy conditions prior to Plaintiff's accident.

Therefore, I direct the Clerk to enter judgment as follows:

1. against William Andrews on the complaint.
