

PRESS RELEASE

For further information contact: Houston Putnam Lowry, Esq. (203) 235-1651

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL LAWYER ADMITTED TO LONDON GUILD

(Thursday, August 08, 2002, Meriden, CT) Houston Putnam Lowry, Esq. of the Brown & Welsh, P.C. (<http://brownwelsh.com>) law firm was admitted as a Freeman to the Worshipful Company of Arbitrators (<http://www.arbitratorscompany.org>).

The Worship Company of Arbitrators is a London livery company, which trace their ancestry back to the Fourteenth Century (http://www.cityoflondon.gov.uk/leisure\_heritage/livery). The Company maintains a program of activities to promote arbitration, including arbitration in London. The Company is also involved in charitable work. Admission is by election and is very selective.

“This is a great honor,” said Lowry, only the second person from the United States admitted to the Company. Lowry has done hundreds of arbitrations and mediations, including as an attorney trial referee in the Connecticut Superior Court.

Brown & Welsh practices business law (domestic and international) and related litigation, arbitration and mediation, including contracts, Uniform Commercial Code (sale of goods, promissory notes, electronic transfer of funds, letters of credit and security interests), bankruptcy, and computer law (including domain name disputes and identity theft).